Food Chains and Food Webs

Food chains ____ food webs show ____ main feeding relationship _____ organisms, whether they _____ plants, animals ____ even bacteria.

are, between, and, or, the Producers ____ always ____ first organisms ____ any food chain. This _____ because producers make _____ own energy. They ____ this by taking non-living matter _____ the environment (such as minerals, gases, water _____ sunlight) and converting it _____ a more useful source (such as glucose). Green plants, such as grass, are examples ____ producers.

into, their, do, and, are, of, from, is, the, in Consumers _____ make their own energy. Rather, consumers _____ obtain energy _____ eating, ____ consuming other organisms. Most animals _____ consumers.

or, by, cannot, are, must Decomposers _____ detritivores break down and consume organic matter and recycle _____ nutrients back _____ the soil. Because ____ this, decomposers and detritivores _____ always found ____ the end of ___ food chain.

of, at, and, a, the, into, are

Fill in the blanks:

_____ _____ _____

Grass → Grasshopper → Frog → Snake → Worms