Describing Differences

Solutions

We use ‘in contrast to’, ‘in comparison to’, ‘is different from’, ‘differs from’ and ‘unlike’ to explain differences between two things.

in contrast to	differs from	unlike	different from	in comparison to	whereas

1. Use the phrases in the box to complete these sentences:

a) Sugar is a soluble substance _____ sand which is an insoluble substance. Another example of a/an soluble substance is _____ and another example of a/an insoluble substance is _____

b) Soluble substances will dissolve _____ insoluble substances will not dissolve.

c) In a solution, the solute is the thing that dissolves _____ the solvent that is the thing doing the dissolving. An example of a solute is _____ and an example of a solvent is _____

d) A centrifuge is a device that spins to separate solids from liquids, or liquids from liquids, this _____ decantation which involves separation by pouring liquid off the top of a mixture. Name a common household device which uses centrifuge _____

e) Evaporation is used to collect a dissolved solute only which is _____ distillation which collects both the solvent and solute.

f) Sand could be removed from water by filtration _____ _____ salt which would need to be removed by evaporation.