Achieve!

Acids and bases around the home

☞ 1 Complete the crossword using the words in the word bank.

Word bank

sodium bicarbonate antacid hazard sulfuric corrosive gloves bacteria caustic sodium hydroxide cleaner carbonic citric bases

Across

2 The bubbles in soft drink are formed by _____ acid.

6 Hydrochloric acid in your stomach kills _____.

9 A base used in cooking to help cakes rise

12 Car batteries contain _____ acid.

Down

1 An example of a strong base

2 A type of acid found in lemon juice

3 Ammonia is a common household _____.

4 These tablets are used to help settle upset stomachs.

5 _____ous symbols are placed on chemicals to warn us that they are dangerous.

7 You should always wear these when cleaning to keep your skin from becoming irritated.

8 Bases that destroy living tissue are sometimes called _____.

10 Most cleaning products around the home are _____.

11 Strong acids are dangerous because they are _____.

2 Match the statements below.

The acids we eat	citric acid when we eat fruit.
We eat acids such as	and they can attack your skin.
Bases are corrosive like acids	taste sour.
Bases are often found in cleaning products	like bleach and drain cleaner.

© Janine Haeusler and Blake Education 2014
ISBN 978 1 92571 062 5