Primates revision questions

23

1 Name the two major divisions of primates. _____

2 Define quadrapedal. _____

3 If the 'Old World' is Africa and Asia, what is the 'New World'? _____

4 Identify three characteristics that distinguish apes from other primates. _____

5 Which primate looks after its offspring for the longest time? _____

6 Name the sense that is most valuable to a monkey. _____

7 Which is the largest of the primates? _____

8 Name three primates that can walk upright. _____

9 When did the first hominids appear? _____

10 Give three ways in which primates can communicate with each other. _____

Decide whether the following statements are true or false.

11 All primates are mammals. _____

12 Prosimians tend to exhibit solitary behaviour. _____

13 Anthropoids tend to form groups. _____

14 There are five families of prosimii. _____

15 Humans are anthropoids. _____

16 Anthropoids have two premolar teeth. _____

17 Anthropoids have opposable thumbs. _____

18 Prosimii lack tails. _____

19 Monkeys and marmosets are New World monkeys. _____

20 The prosimian's eyes were once on either side of the head. _____

21 Anthropoids can spend some of the time using bipedal motion. _____

22 The monkey is one of the more advanced primates. _____

23 New World monkeys tend to be larger than Old World. _____

24 Humans are the largest of the primates. _____

25 Gorillas live in family units. _____

26 Gorillas live in nests. _____

27 As primates have evolved, they have become smaller. _____

28 Primates first appeared on Earth a few hundred thousand years ago. _____

29 Most apes tend to eat mainly vegetation. _____

30 The word anthropoid means 'having two feet'. _____

© Wendy St Germain, Peter Gribben and Learning Essentials 2003.

© Blake Education ISBN 978 1 92561 068 0 Assignments in Biology Book 3