Luminous or non-luminous

- Complete the sentences

  A _____ object is a source of light.

  Light rays bounce off _____ objects and enter our eyes.

- Quickly sketch a room where you live.

  Label 2 luminous and 2 non-luminous objects that are in the room.

How fast does light travel?

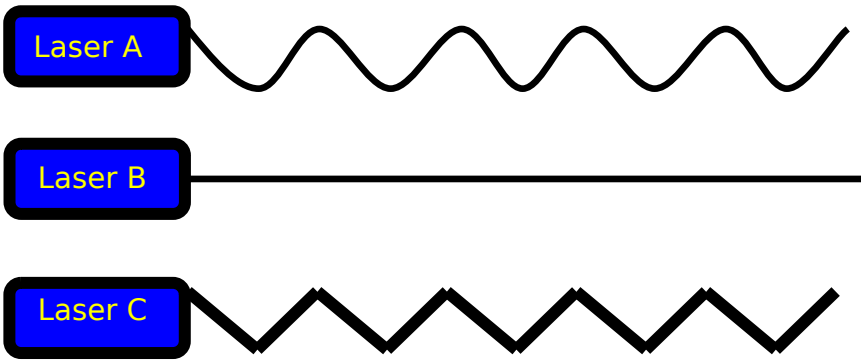

Light travels at 300 000 km/s. The sun is 149 000 000 km from the Earth.

- How long does it take for light to reach the Earth? Show you working out.

- Which travels faster; light or sound? How do you know?

How does light travel?

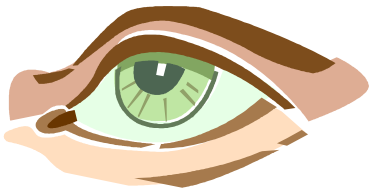

- Which diagram is correct?

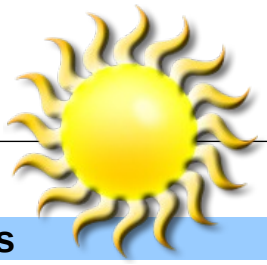

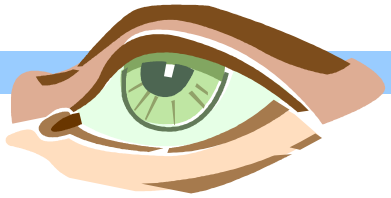

- Draw light rays to show why we can see the sun and the mobile phone

Answers

1) A luminous object is a source of light.

Light rays bounce off non-luminous objects and enter our eyes.

2) Luminous objects s[illegible]might include are: lightbulb, candle, television, [illegible]fire, torch etc.

3) 149 000 000 km / 300 000 km/s = 496.7 s (or 8.3 minutes)

4) Light travels faster. We see lightening before we hear the thunder clap.

Students may give other examples.

5) Laser B

6)