Cut out the unfinished sentences. Match the cards to complete the sentences.

Reproduction means the production of …	… vagina when its born.
Fertilisation is when …	… offspring.
The male sex cell is called …	… the baby is born.
The female sex cell is called …	… puberty.
Sperm are produced in …	… the ovaries.
Eggs are produced in …	… egg divides completely into identical halves that develop separately.
Emotions change in boys and girls during …	… foetus from bumps.
The chemical messengers which cause puberty …	… the testes.
A female has her period about …	… a foetus.
A baby develops in….	… every 28 days.
Oxygen passes into the baby through…	… the uterus.
An organism developing in the uterus is called …	… a male and female sex cell join together.
Amniotic fluid protects the…	… are called hormones.
Growth occurs when …	… an egg.
The baby passes through the …	… new cells are made.
The placenta is pushed out after …	… a sperm.
Identical twins are formed when a fertilised …	… the umbilical cord.

© www.teachitscience.co.uk 2012

Answers

Reproduction means the production of …	… offspring.
Fertilisation is when …	… a male and female sex cell join together.
The male sex cell is called …	… a sperm.
The female sex cell is called …	… an egg.
Sperm are produced in …	… the testes.
Eggs are produced in …	… the ovaries.
Emotions change in boys and girls during …	… puberty.
The chemical messengers which cause puberty …	… are called hormones.
A female has her period about …	… every 28 days.
A baby develops in …	… the uterus.
Oxygen passes into the baby through …	… the umbilical cord.
An organism developing in the uterus is called …	… a foetus.
Amniotic fluid protects the …	… foetus from bumps.
Growth occurs when …	… new cells are made.
The baby passes through the …	… vagina when its born.
The placenta is pushed out after …	… the baby is born.
Identical twins are formed when a fertilised …	… egg divides completely into identical halves that develop separately.