Friction as a Friend

Friction ____ help us in many ways.

- Friction between the ground ____ our shoes allows us to walk and run _____ slipping over.
- The brakes on __ car rely on friction with the wheels to slow down ____ stop the car.
- Cars ____ prevented from skidding on roads ___ the friction between the road and ____ tyres.
- The friction between a match and a matchbox produces enough heat ___ ignite the match.
- The friction between a pencil and paper enables ___ to write and draw.
- Friction between ____ hands and a cricket bat allows us to hold ____ firmly.

without, a, are, our, can, us, it, to, the, or, by, and,

Friction ____ be a nuisance to us.

- Friction causes wear. Friction _____ moving parts of a machine such ___ a car engine can cause _____ to wear and prevent them _____ working properly.
- Friction makes __ difficult to keep objects moving. Friction between __ bookcase and the floor makes it difficult ___ slide.
- The heat produced ___ friction can be a disadvantage to ____. If _____ allow a rope to move quickly through our hands the friction between the rope and _____ hands can burn our hands.

as, to, from, we, our, can, a, by, them, it, between, us,

1. What is friction?

2. When are friction forces present?

3. What does friction do to your shoes?

4. How does friction help us?

5. How can friction be a nuisance?