Types of Forces

Natural forces _____ make things happen. They can move mountains ____ uproot trees. Natural forces _____ those forces which occur _____ nature without being controlled _____ influenced by people. Most natural forces play such ____ important part in _____ lives that we often take them ___ granted. We tend to only take notice ____ those natural forces that create great destruction and loss of life, _____usually occur near populated areas.

An, can, our, and, for, are, which, of, in, or.

Gravitational forces

Gravitational forces ____ forces of attraction _____ objects. The Earth's gravitational force, ____ gravity, keeps everything, including _____ and I, on _____ ground.

You, are, or, between, the Atmospheric forces

Atmospheric forces occur _____ the atmosphere. They can _____ very destructive, such as, cyclones _____ tornadoes, ____ helpful, such as thermals used ___ gliders pilots.

By, and, be, in, or

Magnetic forces

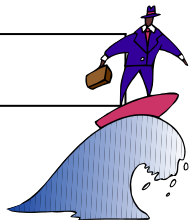

Magnetic forces occur ___ nature. Lodestones ____ magnetic. The Earth acts ____ a large bar magnet, with a north ____ south pole, producing ___ large magnetic field.

Are, a, in, and, as

Earthquakes

Earthquakes _____ violent shaking ____ movement of ____ ground. The force of an earthquake _____ cause much destruction and loss ___ life. Earthquakes can _____ cause large ocean waves _____ tsunamis.

Called, are, can, of, also, the, and