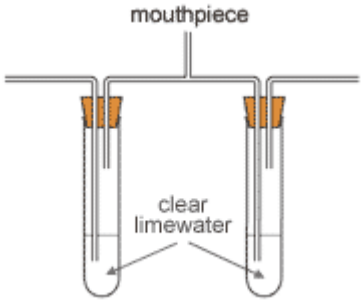
Obseving the difference between inhaled and exhaled air.

- Set up the equipment as shown in the diagram:



A B

- Gently breathe through the mouthpiece.
- Observe any changes in the two test tubes.

Questions

1. Which tube (A or B) is testing the inhaled air? _____
2. How do you know?
   _____
   _____
3. Which tube is testing the exhaled air? _____
4. How do you know?
   _____
   _____
5. What gas was being tested for with the limewater? _____
6. What change do you expect to see if there is a positive result with the limewater?
   _____
7. Briefly describe your observations below:
   _____
   _____
   _____
8. What information does this give us about the composition of inhaled and exhaled air?
   _____
   _____
   _____