Name: Class:

Student book questions

7.4 Magnetic fields can apply a force from a distance

Pages 126–127

Check your learning 7.4

Remember and understand

1 What is a magnetic field?

2 How could you map the field around a magnetic nail?

3 Describe in words the shape of the magnetic field when two magnets are:

a attracting

b repelling.

© Oxford University Press 2017
Oxford Science 7 Western Australian Curriculum Teacher obook assess ISBN 9780190307110
Permission has been granted for this page to be photocopied within the purchasing institution only.

Name: Class:

4 By looking at the magnetic fields made by different magnets, can you decide which magnet is stronger? Suggest a rule to use.

5 Draw the magnetic field around a broken magnet:

a that has been re-joined

b with the two pieces 10 cm apart

c with the two pieces 1 cm apart.

© Oxford University Press 2017

Oxford Science 7 Western Australian Curriculum Teacher obook assess ISBN 9780190307110
Permission has been granted for this page to be photocopied within the purchasing institution only.

Name: Class:

Apply and analyse

6 Explain how a compass works.

7 Explain why you should never leave a library card on the demagnetising panel of a shop.

© Oxford University Press 2017
Oxford Science 7 Western Australian Curriculum Teacher obook assess ISBN 9780190307110
Permission has been granted for this page to be photocopied within the purchasing institution only.