Persuasive Essay Template

Name:

Each paragraph (1, 2 and 3) of your essay needs 4 ideas. Use the outline below to help you construct your essay.

Introduction (3 statements or ideas):

- State your opinion firmly – "I agree/disagree with…"
- Provide some background information on your topic.
- Give a preview of your upcoming arguments (HINT: you may want to add this after you have written your arguments!)

Paragraph 1 (First argument):

- Point
- Reason
- Explanation/Example
- Opinion reworded

Paragraph 2 (Second argument):

- Point
- Reason
- Explanation/Example
- Opinion reworded

Paragraph 3 (Third argument):

- Point
- Reason
- Explanation/Example
- Opinion reworded

Paragraph 4 (Rebuttal):

- Provide one argument for the opposing side and then give a reason why it is wrong.

Conclusion:

- Restate arguments (from paragraphs 1, 2 and 3)
- Engage the audience

Persuasive Essay Planner

Title:

Opinion and Background Information:

Argument 1

Argument 2

Argument 3

Rebuttal

Conclusion: