Plastic throwaway

1. What two types of molecules need to be chemically bonded to make plastic? _____
2. Is this a physical or chemical change?
3. M _____ are bonded into p_____
4. When the plastic pellets are melted and made into bottles, is that a physical or chemical change?
5. Where does bottle 1 end up? _____
6. How long would bottle 1 take to decompose? _____
7. Where does bottle 2 end up? _____
8. How many plastic-filled ‘gyres’ or sea garbage piles are there? _____
9. List the steps in plastic recycling:
    - _____
    - _____
    - _____
    - _____
10. Are these physical or chemical changes?

Plastic throwaway

1. What two types of molecules need to be chemically bonded to make plastic? _____
2. Is this a physical or chemical change?
3. M _____ are bonded into p_____
4. When the plastic pellets are melted and made into bottles, is that a physical or chemical change?
5. Where does bottle 1 end up? _____
6. How long would bottle 1 take to decompose? _____
7. Where does bottle 2 end up? _____
8. How many plastic-filled ‘gyres’ or sea garbage piles are there? _____
9. List the steps in plastic recycling:
    - _____
    - _____
    - _____
    - _____

10.Are these physical or chemical changes?