Techniques for Separating Mixtures 1

Task:

Use coloured pencils to match the separating technique to its correct definition.

Used when separating a solvent from a solution	Chromatography
Used when separating a soluble solvent from a solid	Decantation
Used when separating mixtures containing dissolved substances	Filtration
Used when separating a mixture through shaking and settling	Evaporation
Used when separating a solute from a solvent in a saturated solution	Distillation
Used when separating an insoluble solid from a liquid	Crystallisation

TeachStarter.com

Techniques for Separating Mixtures 1 – Answers

Used when separating a solvent from a solution	Chromatography
Used when separating a soluble solvent from a solid	Decantation
Used when separating mixtures containing dissolved substances	Filtration
Used when separating a mixture through shaking and settling	Evaporation
Used when separating a solute from a solvent in a saturated solution	Distillation
Used when separating an insoluble solid from a liquid	Crystallisation

TeachStarter.com