The human ear

☞ 1 Use the words in the word bank to label the diagram.

Word bank

outer ear eardrum middle ear inner ear cochlea Eustachian tube
stapes

The table below shows approximate hearing ranges for humans, dogs and bats.

Species	Approx. hearing range (Hz)
Human	20–23 000
Dog	40–60 000
Bat	20–120 000

2 Why do bats have such a wide hearing range? _____

_____

3 Could humans hear the same sounds as bats? _____

_____

4 Explain what a dog whistle is, and why humans can't hear them. _____

_____

© Beth Montgomery and Blake Education 2012

© Blake Education 978 1 92571 040 3 Achieve! Science Understanding Biology Yr 7 - 8