Elements in the human body

☞ 1 Use the words in the word bank to complete the crossword puzzle.

Word bank

sodium carbon oxygen iron potassium calcium hydrogen fluorine nitrogen zinc iodine phosphorus

Across

3 O – needed for breathing

5 H – element that makes up water

6 Ca – needed for healthy bones

7 P – needed for muscle growth and nerve function

8 F – often added to water supply to improve health of teeth

10 I – needed for producing hormones

11 Zn – helps with colds

Down

1 K – important for muscle contractions

2 Na – found in sweat

4 N – gas found in your lungs

6 C – element found in all living things

9 Fe – mostly found in the blood

2 Match the sentence halves below to complete the following statements.

Potassium is an important	are two gases found in your lungs.
Carbon is found	your blood is iron.
An important mineral stored in	in all living things.
Oxygen and nitrogen	mineral needed for muscle contractions.

© Janine Haeusler and Blake Education 2014
© Blake Education ISBN 978 1 92571 061 8 Achieve! Science Science understanding - Chemistry Years 7-8