Cooling down

As a substance cools, its particles lose energy and slow down. As they slow down, the particles become more attracted to each other, and move closer together. This changes the substance from a gas to a liquid, or from a liquid to a solid.

☞ 1 Use the words in the word bank to label the diagram below.

Word bank
condensation
liquid gas solidification solid freezing

S _____ or C _____

F _____

2 Separate the words below to make sentences, then write out each sentence on the line below.

Whenagaschangestoaliquiditiscalledcondensation.

_____

Whenaliquidchangestoasoliditiscalledsolidificationorfreezing.

_____

Thechangeofstatefromagastoaliquidiscausedbycooling.

_____

Whenasubstanceiscooledtheparticlesloseenergy.

_____

Whengasparticlesareheatedtheyspreadoutandmovequicker.

_____

Whenliquidparticlesarecooledtheymovemoreslowly.

_____

© Janine Haeusler and Blake Education 2014
© Blake Education ISBN 978 1 92571 061 8