Properties of metals

Substances are often classified into groups containing similar substances. Metals are one such group.

☞ 1 Use the words in the word bank to complete the passage below.

Metals are grouped on the l_____-hand side of the p_____ table. They are good conductors of h_____ and e_____. Metals are usually h _____ and strong but they are also f_____, which allows them to be shaped. Metals are s_____ when polished, but some can tarnish. They also have h_____ melting and b_____ points. M_____ is the only metal that is not a s_____ at room temperature. Metals are heavy for their size. We say that they are d_____.

Word bank shiny Mercury dense left heat high solid electricity periodic flexible hard boiling

2 Use the information above to complete the table below.

Properties of metals
•
•
•
•
•
•
•
•

3 Match the phrases below.

Metals are good	melting and boiling points.
Metals are flexible	that is not a solid at room temperature.
Mercury is the only metal	and can be shaped.
Metals have high	conductors of heat and electricity.

© Janine Haeusler and Blake Education 2014
© Blake Education ISBN 978 1 92571 061 8