Solutions

- If a solid dissolves in water it is soluble. If it doesn't dissolve, it is insoluble.
- The substance that dissolves another substance is called the solvent.
- When one substance dissolves in another, a solution forms.
- Liquids and gases can also dissolve in a solvent. In soft drinks, carbon dioxide dissolves in water, forming bubbles.

☞ 1 Use the words in the word bank to complete the crossword puzzle.

Word bank

salt solution solvent paint dissolves insoluble sugar solute soluble

Across

2 Mineral turpentine is a solvent often used to dissolve _____.

3 Forms when one substance dissolves in another

5 A _____dissolves in another substance.

6 In seawater, the solute is the _____.

7 If a substance dissolves it is _____.

Down

1 Instant coffee _____ in hot water.

3 A soluble substance used when making tea and coffee

4 Sand is _____ in water.

7 The substance that dissolves another substance is called the _____.

© Janine Haeusler and Blake Education 2014
© Blake Education ISBN 978 1 92571 061 8