FOSSILS

1 What are Fossils?

2 What can fossils include?

3 What is the study of past life called?

4 What does a palaeontologist do?

5 How do you make a fossil?

(i)

(ii)

(iii)

6 Where can you find good conditions for fossilisation?

7 Why are these areas particularly good?

8 There are 4 main types of Fossils. For each type, name it, describe what is important about its construction and age and give an example.

(i)

(ii)

There are several different environments where fossilisation occurs. Explain how the environment in question does the process and give an example.

9 Permafrost.

10 Amber.

11 Tar

12 Peat

13 Dry Air

(iii)

(iv)