Quick Quiz

NAME: _____

Name three basic parts of an atom state their charge.

Explain the ways in which objects can become charged? What is happening to the atoms of the object?

_____

_____

_____

_____

What is the difference between voltage and current?

_____

_____

_____

_____

What are each measured in?

_____

_____

What does an ammeter do?

_____

_____

What is a circuit?

_____

_____

_____

What are the basic requirements for an active circuit?

_____

_____

_____

Electrical energy can be converted into many other forms of energy. Give some examples?

_____

_____

Electrical energy can come from a variety of sources. Think of as many as you can.

_____

_____

What are the differences between a parallel and series circuits?

_____

_____

_____

_____

Draw a diagram of both (label parts)

What part in a circuit does a power supply play?

_____

_____

What is a conductor? Give two examples

_____

_____

_____

What is an insulator? Give two examples

_____

_____

_____