Sound Revision questions

1. What has to happen to an object before it can become a source of sound?

2. List five different sources of sound

3. Sound energy is carried through air by compressions and rarefactions. Explain how these are formed.

4. When a small bird, such as a canary, takes off, its wings make a certain type of noise. Why is this noise different from the noise a mosquito makes when it flies?

5. Timekeepers at school athletics carnivals have to start their stopwatches when they see the smoke from the starter's pistol and not when they hear the sound of the shot. What is the reason for this?

6. A students strikes a steel water pipe with a hammer. Another student about 600 metres further along the pipe hears three separate sounds. Explain what is happening in this situation.

7. An air-sea rescue pilot sees a dlare burst in the sky. Five second later he hears the noise of the slaare exploding. If the speed of sound in air is 330 m/s, how far is the distress flare from the rescuer?

8. Do you think that sound can travel through a vacuum? Give a reason for your answer.