Year 9 Science

Infectious Diseases – Pathogens

Pathogen	Description	Examples	Symptoms	Mode of infection
Parasites	An organism that gains resources from another 'host' organism, without necessarily causing harm to that host	Lice	Itchy scalp Sores where you have scratched	Direct contact
Viruses	Non-cellular pathogen DNA or RNA enclosed in protein coats	Chicken pox	Fever Raised spots with yellow tops	Air, direct contact
		Mumps	Fever, swollen glands
Bacteria	Single-celled organism that exist in a variety of shapes	Tetanus	Stiffness of neck and jaw (lockjaw)	Contact with spores – usually through open wounds
Protozoans	Parasitic single-celled organisms	Malaria	Chills Fever Fatigue Headache Nausea Vomiting	Mosquito bites (animal vector)
Fungi	Parasitic organisms	Tinea	Red, scaly rash Itching Stinging	Direct contact
Worms and Arthropods	Parasitic animals	Tapeworm	Nausea Weakness Loss of appetite Weight loss Diarrhoea	Uncooked or undercooked food