Habitats

A habitat is the place where an organism _____.

This habitat must have certain resources for the organism to survive.

These include:

-

-

-

-

-

-

These things can divided into two types:

Types of factors
Biotic	Abiotic
These are the living things	These are the non-living things
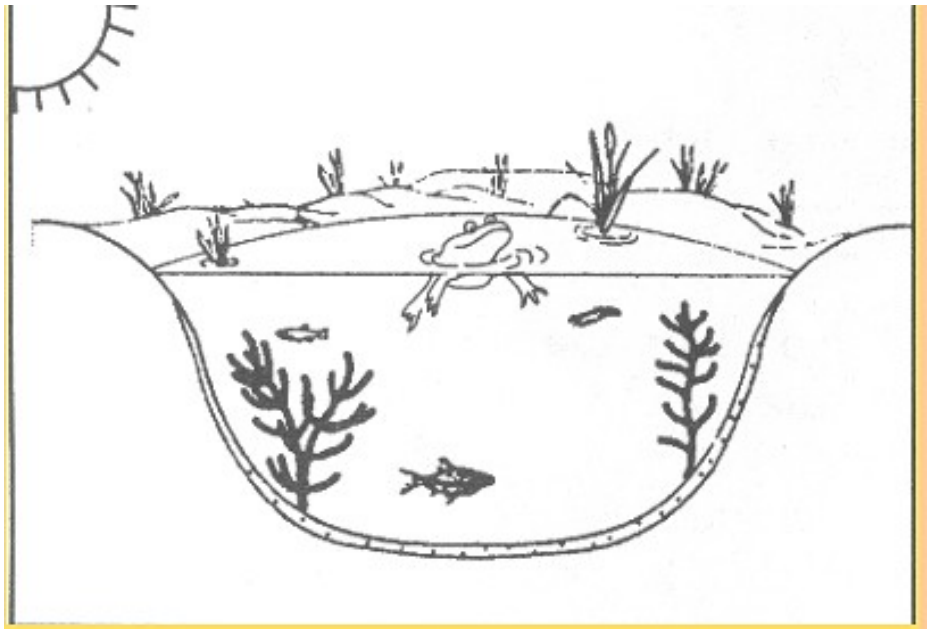
Examples	Examples

Look at the frog in this picture. List the biotic and abiotic factors into the table below the picture



Types of factors
Biotic	Abiotic