Types of Mixtures (p119-122)

Some substances are pure, having nothing else mixed with them. However, most og the substances you come across everyday are not pure substances but mixtures. The air you breathe is a mixture, as is paint and the water from the tap.

What is a mixture?

1. What is a mixture?

2. What must you be able to do to a mixture?

Solutions

1. Describe what happens when sugar is mixed into water and dissolves.

2. What is something that dissolves called?

3. What is something that doesn't dissolve called?

4. A solution is made when things mix really well.
   - The substance that dissolves is called the _____.
   - The substance that does the dissolving is called the _____.
   - In a sugar solution, the sugar is the _____ and the water is the _____.

5. What is one is one way of telling is a mixture is a solution?

6. List some things that adaptations enable plants to do.
   -

-
-
-
-

Where Organisms Live

1. Name an animal that has a large habitat.

2. Name an animal that has a very limited habitat.

Environmental Conditions

1. What does the term environment mean?

2. List seven factors that may change an environment.
   -
   -
   -
   -
   -
   -
   -

3. What is ecology?

Living Together

1. What is an ecosystem?

2. Organisms in an ecosystem are interdependent. What does it mean to be interdependent?

3. Another name for interdependence is symbiosis. For the three types of symbiosis below, describe each one and give an example.
   a. Commensalism

   b. Mutualism

c. Parasitism