Worksheet 4.7

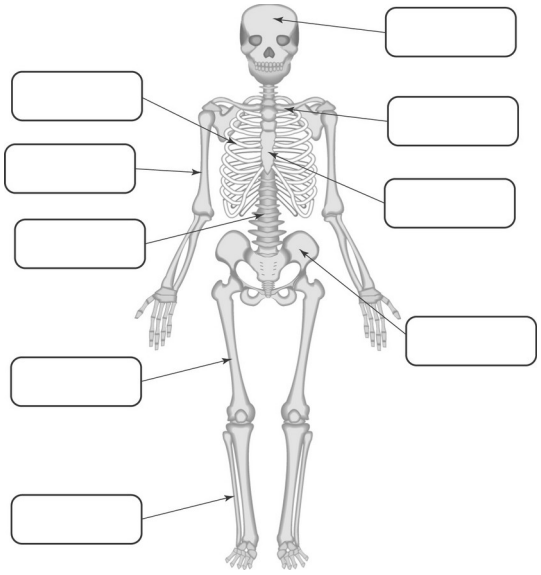

Bones, joints and muscles

Student: ..... Class: .....

Location of bones

1. Complete the following diagram by inserting the correct names of bones from the list below.

clavicle
humerus femur pelvis sternum tibia vertebra ribs skull

Joints

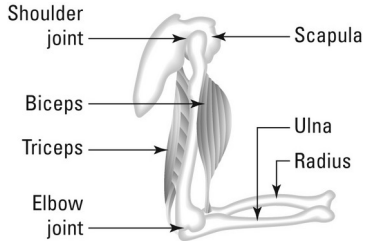

2. Complete the following table by inserting the correct term for the type of joint in the first column.

Types: hinge pivot ball and socket

Type of joint	Movement of the joint Allows movement in many different directions Allows movement in only one direction Allows twisting movements

Joints, bones and muscles

3. Consider the diagram below of the arm and shoulder.

(a) Identify the types of joints in this diagram.

(b) Explain how the forearm can be raised and lowered via the combined action of the two muscles and the elbow joint.

© John Wiley & Sons Australia, Ltd